

Registration Worksheet

U.S. Army, Navy, and Air Force sponsored 48th National Junior Science & Humanities Symposium April 28 – May 2, 2010, Bethesda, Maryland

JSHS regional directors, or their designated representative, must pre-register the five student delegates and adult leader/chaperone who will attend National. Pre-registration should immediately follow the completion of the symposium or no later than two weeks following the symposium. Pre-registration is submitted electronically through <http://www.jshs.org>, National symposium registration. After pre-registering, attending students and the chaperone must complete the registration process to request hotel accommodations, tours, and pay a registration fee. ALL students also submit their abstract, consent form, and paper--as applicable.

(Note: Upon successful completion of pre-registration, you will receive an authorization code. This code allows access to the GROUP records. You may log-on with this code at any time to view the status of registration for the regional delegation. INDIVIDUALS (students and adults) access registration with their SSN. Please contact the National JSHS Office at Tel. 603/228-4520 if we can help.)

Reminders and affirmations for registration

Yes No

Each student delegate was asked to state a preference for flight arrangements and reminded to consider potential participation conflicts. Further, students were informed that participation requires a commitment to attend the entire symposium and all events. If the student cannot make this commitment, then it is understood that the regional symposium should pass this award to another finalist.

Yes No

I understand that submission of this pre-registration will result in coordination of non-refundable, non-transferable airline tickets for each of the regional symposium delegates.

Yes No

To complete the registration process, each student delegate has been instructed to log-on at <http://www.jsbs.org/>, by a deadline established by the regional symposium and in keeping with the National JSBS registration deadline. Each student understands that other registration details include submission of the following and that the absolute registration deadline is April 3. Early registration please for early symposia – March 20.

- registration fee to support attendance costs beyond those supported through military sponsorship
- an original consent form, signed by the student and parent/guardian and submitted for receipt at the National JSBS Office no later than April 3
- an electronic version of the student's abstract, for publication and distribution to all National JSBS attendees (note: paper submissions received only by exception)
- for presenters only - an electronic version of the research paper.
